

BANK ROBBER IS KILLED BY POSSE

Pawhuska Sheriff Raids Still and Gets Robber; Deputy Also Shot

Special to The World.
PAWHUSKA, Feb. 26.—One man, an escaped convict and believed to be a bank robber, was almost instantly killed, and another, a deputy sheriff, was fatally wounded when a sheriff's posse raided a small moonshiner's shack near Big heart Saturday.

The man who was killed, Henry Meigs, opened fire on the squad of officers as they advanced upon the shack. John Collins of Bigheart, a member of the posse, was shot just below the heart. The officers returned Meigs' fire and the bandit fell to the ground dead. Two other men who gave the names of Charles Wells and J. Hilton were arrested. The officers had raided the shack seeking a still. Meigs is said to have escaped from the state penitentiary last July. He is also believed to be one of the bank robbers who have made raids on several banks in this section during the last three months. He has been identified as having taken part in the daylight looting of the American National bank here February 14 and the officers said that he had in his pocket a money order each bearing the name of the Bank of Broken Bow, which was robbed last month.

The other two men, according to the officers, are not suspected of being bank robbers. At least the officers say they have no evidence connecting either Wells or Hilton in any way with any bank raids. They are being held in the county jail here on charges of moonshining. Collins was brought to the Morningside hospital late Saturday afternoon. He was shot below the heart and died at 10:45 o'clock Saturday night.

MEMORIAL TO A. D. YOUNG

Shrine Band Pays Tribute to Memory of Former Member Sunday.

Tribute to A. D. Young, the man and the musician, was paid in the memorial concert given Sunday afternoon by Adkar shrine band in Convention hall, in a verse, "To a Departed Friend," by Richard Watson Glider, which headed the printed program copies. Young's favorite hymn, "Mother Dear, Jerusalem," was played by the band as the first number on the program, with the audience standing and singing. Specially liked were the overture "Raymond" (A. Thomas), and a cornet solo by Signor Liberti. Fryer's "Triumph of Old Glory," a medley of patriotic airs, was a fitting finale.

FLUCTUATION NARROW

New Orleans Cotton Market Shows Little Variation—Drought Conditions Causing Apprehension.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 26.—Fluctuations were unusually narrow in the cotton market this week, the extreme range of prices being only 60 to 88 points. March traded as high as 17.37c at its best and from that level fell to 16.60c, high prices being made on Thursday and low prices on Friday. At the highest the trading months were 13 points under to 45 points over the close of the preceding week, while at the lowest they were 23 to 63 points under. Last prices were 19 points net higher to 23 points net lower, old crops closing at net gains and new crops at losses.

The strength of Liverpool and larger spot trading there, bulges in wheat and stocks, and continued cheap money were the main influences of the week's working for higher prices. On the closing session much was made of estimates of 250,000 pieces of print cloths as the week's sales in Fall River.

New crop accounts were considered unsatisfactory and as not reflecting the progress that should be made with preparations for planting.

The forecast of dry weather for Texas and Oklahoma seemed to do away with the hope that the drought would be relieved completely at this time.

SOCIETY GIRL IS ATTACKED

Mysterious Stranger Strikes Girl Over Head While She Lies Asleep.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Shortly after she had fallen asleep early today on her return from a masquerade party, Miss Dorothy Nichols, 18-year-old society girl of Washington Heights, awoke with a scream when struck a heavy blow on the head. Her assailant escaped.

The young woman's head was badly cut by the leaden sash weight used by the mysterious prowler, who fled through a window by which he had entered. Her parents, in an adjoining room, later aroused by their daughter's moans, found her unconscious. Her life probably was saved, hospital surgeons said, by her thick blonde hair which was braided and broke the force of the blow.

Paving Contracts Are Let by Competitive Bidding

There is no limit to the number of contractors that may bid on any paving project. Certain prescribed rules must be followed; such as obtaining blank bidding contracts from the City and including a certified check for five per cent of the total bid, as evidence of good faith.

All bids are sealed and are deposited with the City Auditor. Here they remain locked in the vault, until time for their presentation to the City Commission. All information as to the number of bidders interested in a paving project is withheld during that period.

On the day publicly designated for letting the contract, these bids are presented to the City Commission, opened, read aloud by the City Auditor, and then referred to the City Engineer for tabulation.

This tabulation is based on the prices bid on various units of construction by each contractor, which prices are totaled. These totals show the bids in the entirety and make it possible for the Commission to easily determine which is smallest.

At a later meeting of the City Commission, these totals are studied and the contract is awarded to the lowest, responsible bidder.

While the bids are turned over to the City Auditor on printed sets of bidding blanks, they are entered on the tabulation in parallel columns to facilitate comparison.

Below is copied verbatim, the tabulation covering a contract awarded recently. It shows not only the amounts bid, but also the large number of bidders that compete for contracts:

The amount of the lowest bid is assessed against the entire district covered by the contract, each piece of property sharing in the cost according to the number of square yards of paving abutting it, and according to the benefits it derives from such a public improvement.

It is easily understood why there is a considerable difference in the cost of paving around a corner lot, and paving in front of a lot in the middle of a block, and why some lots bear a less proportion of the cost than others.
